

Having Lived - Ingeborg Strobl

Experience the exhibition Having Lived - Ingeborg Strobl now at home.

You can move freely through the digital 360° panorama with the help of the control and take a close look at the exciting objects, installations, collages, paintings, photographs, films and publications.

You can also view the virtual panorama on your mobile devices.

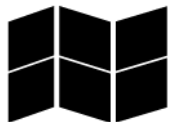

In this application you can find additional applications like gyroscope or an option for virtual reality glasses.

Move from point to point by clicking on the floor markers. The viewing angle can be changed easily by dragging while holding down the mouse button.

Use the zoom function or scroll with your mouse to get a close look at each piece.

To get an overview, you can orientate yourself with the help of the exhibition plan.

Detailed images of the artworks and wall texts can be discovered via these icons on the wall.

Film fans will find artistic video contributions by Ingeborg Strobl at each camera icon.

Activate the gyroscope function and explore the exhibition by moving your mobile device.

You are in possession of virtual reality glasses? Then you can immerse yourself in the virtual reality of the exhibition via this application.